Synopsis—Episode One

2 ✓ "THE SECRET CIPHER" ✓

AUG 20 21

Nancy Kellog mortgages her paper mill to Clifton Marlow on a loan. Marlow covets the mill and hopes to get it by marrying Nancy. She loves Larry Hutchdale, who has solved the power problem that enables her to operate on a profit.

Ann Haviland also loves Hutch and is jealous of Nancy. Her grandfather tells her they can be rich if they can obtain a formula for making paper from seaweed, the hiding place of which is woven in a silver lace scarf.

Marlow learns of the scarf and, with the aid of Jim Tigerly, tries to get it from Bella Brinkley, the daughter of the man who stole the formula from Nancy's father. Brinkley fled the country, believing himself responsible for Kellog's death. Fire foils Tigerly's plot and Bella is daringly rescued from her burning home by Hutch. Out of gratitude, she gives the scarf to Nancy.

Later, Marlow attempts to get the scarf from Nancy by luring her away from the house. Tigerly drives her, ostensibly to the scene of an accident to Hutch. Nancy realizes a trap when they pass Hutch, who turns back and jumps from his car to Tigerly's. They fight and fall from the car down a bank. The car, with Nancy, plunges over a cliff into the river's swirling rapids.
